(Actor)

Christopher Lohran

Christopher Lohran is a dynamic actor and multidisciplinary artist from Mexico City. He mastered his craft at La Teatreria and CasAzul Artes Escénicas, where his exceptional academic performance earned him a scholarship. His artistic journey was further shaped by advanced studies in Musical Theater at Broadway México.

Christopher has built an impressive career in film and audiovisual media. He recently starred in a co-leading role in Francisco Franco's series La Vida Entera and has been featured in short films such as Mi Bello Angel, El Reino de los Inocentes, and La Nahual. His international portfolio includes the U.S.-produced feature film De la Cruz.

His artistic range extends beyond screen acting, having graced renowned stages like the Opera de Bellas Artes, where he showcased his talents as a dancer, actor, and acrobat in celebrated productions including Orfeo y Euridice, Pescadores de Perlas, Giovanna de Arco, Vencedor Vencido, and Turandot.

Christopher's diverse skill set includes tap dancing, singing, acrobatics, circus arts, parkour, wrestling, contemporary dance, ballroom dance, boxing, MMA, basketball, American football, longboarding, skateboarding, and motorcycle riding. His remarkable versatility allows him to excel in a wide range of roles across various artistic disciplines. "I am inspired by truth and the ability to inhabit a reality that connects me deeply to the present and my surroundings."

solo hay que dejar de correr...
al final, uno siempre tiene la posibilidad de crear un mundo mejor.*
