Dario Molina Pérez is a visual artist, communication student, and model based in Mexico City. He trained at Atelier Romo and holds diplomas in art restoration and visual arts. He works in academic three-chalk drawing on plaster, oil, and acrylic, as well as conceptual sculptural pieces that incorporate poetry. He is interested in documenting the present as material for a future collective memory.

He practiced Brazilian jiu-jitsu from the age of seven to fourteen and boxing for two years. Today, cycling and calisthenics structure his day-to-day life.

Dario understands his work as a practice in constant development, in which modeling and acting can contribute to his artistic pursuit.
